

COUNTY FAIR ENTRY PROCEDURES FOR SMALL ANIMALS

Cat Entries:

You must have a copy of the York County Fair Book before completing the entry form. If you do not have a copy, you can pick one up at the Extension Office or banks and various businesses throughout the county. There are a few changes and additions for the 4-H Cat competition so please read the Rules and Regulations carefully.

Refer to the 4-H Cat Division for Rules and Regulations that pertain to the competition and also for a listing of class numbers needed to fill out the entry form.

When filling out the form, we need to have a description of the entry (short hair, long hair, and kitten), breed of the entry (if known) and the birth date or age of the entry. If you have any questions or concerns while filling out the entry form, please stop by or call the extension office (362-5508) for assistance.

Make sure the entry form is filled out completely with all information requested. Make sure that the form is signed by you, the exhibitor, and a parent or guardian and most importantly, make sure the form is turned into the York County Extension Office no later than JULY 15!!
